

SERVICE-DISABLED VETERAN-OWNED SMALL BUSINESS

HALO

HIGH VALUE CONTRACTING

CAPABILITY STATEMENT

Planned thoroughly. Executed precisely.

Serving the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

VISN 23 VA hospital network: IA · MN · NE · ND · SD

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Halo High Value Contracting is a Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) delivering construction, renovation, modernization and maintenance service contracts for the Department of Veterans Affairs across the VISN 23 network.

In the military, HALO stands for High Altitude, Low Opening: a parachute jump that only works with thorough preplanning and precise execution. Our name is a nod to our owner's military service and a statement of how we work. Every VA project gets the same discipline: careful planning up front and precise execution on the ground.

CORE COMPETENCIES

New Construction

New construction projects for Department of Veterans Affairs facilities.

Renovation

Renovation projects for existing VA facilities.

Modernization Projects

Modernization projects for VA facilities.

Maintenance Service Contracts

Maintenance service contracts for VA facilities.

DIFFERENTIATORS

- ◆ Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned. An SDVOSB owned by Jeremy Boeck, with a name rooted in military service.
- ◆ Focused on VISN 23. We concentrate on the VA hospitals of VISN 23 across Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota.
- ◆ Planning discipline. Named for the HALO jump: thorough preplanning before work begins, precise execution once it does.
- ◆ One partner, full facility scope. New construction, renovation, modernization and ongoing maintenance service contracts.
